

HAWARDEN COMMUNITY FOUNDATION

An Affiliate of the Siouxland Community Foundation

GRANT PROGRAM

Application Deadline: April 15

Final Determinations: Mid-June

Background

Charles Horton had a vision to ensure that charitable programs in the community were supported now and in the future. In 1994, he planted the first seeds of giving through a gift from his estate to establish an endowment within the Siouxland Community Foundation for the exclusive benefit of the Hawarden community. The Hawarden Community Foundation (HCF) now serves as a vehicle to receive gifts from individuals, families, businesses, and organizations to establish endowment funds that will provide grant awards for years to come. All gifts received are carefully invested and the income from endowments is used to make grants to public charities that best meet the needs in Hawarden. A seven-member advisory board appointed by position is responsible for governing the Foundation.

Mission

The mission of the Hawarden Community Foundation is to enhance the quality of life, promote unity, and develop community pride now and in the future by partnering with the Hawarden community to identify and prioritize community needs, attract and distribute funds, support volunteerism, and challenge personal involvement and commitment.

Purpose

The purpose of the Hawarden Community Foundation's grant program is to respond to present and emerging needs within Hawarden by making grants in the following areas:

- Arts & Culture: Provide or increase access to theatre, music, arts, dance, museums, historical events.
- Civic: Community betterment/beautification, city government, emergency services, citizen participation, parks and recreation.
- Education: Early childhood development/daycare, primary, secondary, and continuing education; libraries.
- Environment: Pollution control, natural resource conservation, botanic/horticultural activities.
- Health: Promotion and maintenance of physical, dental and mental health; rehabilitative services, crisis intervention.
- Human Services: Housing/shelter, public safety, services for the elderly, youth, families, handicapped, economically disadvantaged, minorities or other special groups.

What is the Siouxland Community Foundation?

The Siouxland Community Foundation, incorporated in 1988, serves as a vehicle to carry out the charitable objectives of donors. It administers a pool of charitable funds contributed or bequeathed by individuals, families, corporations, other agencies and foundations for the long-term benefit of the Siouxland area. The Foundation serves nonprofit organizations and the community-at-large within a 50-mile radius of Sioux City, Iowa, to help meet needs in the areas of arts and culture, civic affairs, education, health, and human services.

As administrators of the Hawarden Community Foundation, the Siouxland Community Foundation actively works with the Hawarden Advisory Board to carry out the vision originated by Charles and Edna Horton.
